Las Canteras is one of the icons of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria. The popular beach is celebrated for its postcard image, its extension and its condition of great urban beach, with different attractions not only to sunbathe or to relax: the snorkel, the surf, the kayak or the paddel surf are just some of the Activities that can be enjoyed in its waters, in view of an extensive promenade dotted with different establishments of restoration. To these charms adds its characteristics especially recommended for families: accessibility, protected water areas behind the Bar and services within reach of those who travel with their children. Something that has re-certified El Economista: the digital newspaper places Las Canteras among the ten best silver plates in Spain "for families with small children".

Magdalena (Cabanas, A Coruña), Barro (Llanes, Asturias), Delicias (Águilas, Murcia), Playa Norte (Peñíscola, Castellón), Central beach of Isla Cristina (Huelva), La Barrosa (Chiclana, Cádiz), El Sardinero (Santander, Cantabria) and Playa de l'Estartit (Torroella de Montgri, Girona), next to Playa Blanca (in Lanzarote), complete this ranking, in Las Canteras appears as a beach "with blue flag and Q of tourist quality". For many, El Economista adds, it is one of the best urban beaches in the world".

This classification of beaches suitable for families with small children was published last August 24. Just a couple of months after the portal Playea highlighted Las Canteras as the best family beach in Spain, in a news also highlighted by the portal specialized in tourism Expreso. From the beach of the capital of the state of Gran Canaria, quality certifications, its "calm waters, with little waves and with a gentle slope, of quality and clean and with an area of sand, without rocks or stones, stood out. The latter are especially attractive for tourists traveling with families and children, as well as the presence of life-saving services or the possibility of practicing different sports or activities, even on its banks.

The charms of Las Canteras for families reinforce the condition of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria as a suitable tourist destination for this public, something that endorses the Seal of Family Tourism received by the city last July. A distinction granted by the Spanish Federation of Numerous Families (FEFN), to distinguish and promote establishments and tourist destinations that bet on the family audience.
