

José Eduardo Ramírez congratulates Kevin Orihuela, first classified in the European Bodyboard Tour

By CDM

Thu Mar 29 07:51:40 WEST 2018

Noticias

The Ciudad de Mar councilor, José Eduardo Ramírez, has held a meeting with the bugler trained at the beach of Las Canteras Kevin Orihuela for his recent sports success in the first round of the European Bodyboard Tour disputed in the Portuguese town of Almada. The mayor congratulated the athlete from the neighborhood of La Isleta on behalf of the Consistory of the capital and moved all the spirit towards his participation in the upcoming international tests in which he plans to compete.

Caparica BB Pro 2018, integrated in the Surf Fest of Almada, in the Lisbon region, is considered one of the best wave festivals in Portugal, was held between 22 and 24 March with the participation of the best riders of Europe.

Orihuela who works as a monitor at Brisa School, one of the schools of La Cícer, within the Association of Surfing Schools of Gran Canaria explained to the councilor that he is also preparing his participation for the world tour of this sport that counts in Gran Canarian with the prestigious El Frontón test, in Gáldar.

Kevin Orihuela hopes to achieve good results that consolidate him among the best bodyboarders of the world circuit. In Portugal managed to impose in the final to Miguel Ferreira luso what has placed him at the moment in front of the classification of the European Tour.

He also highlighted the high level that Canarian athletes are achieving in bodyboarding. On the coast of Caparica, two other young promises from the islands, the Tenerife Teresa Padilla, who was second in the female category, and the Gran Canarian Armide Soliveres, who reached the third position, completed an outstanding participation of the archipelago.