

The Fotosub Las Palmas de Gran Canaria 2017 said goodbye with his most participative day

By CDM

Mon Sep 25 11:16:50 WEST 2017

Noticias

A clearing of funds on the beach of Las Canteras, with about 30 volunteer divers, and the participation of more than a hundred children and 50 fans, has dismissed the underwater photography contest, Las Palmas 2014 Fotosub Las Palmas. The event, consolidated in the annual agenda of the city, boasts a large popular participation, half a thousand people, a complete agenda of activities for the whole family and have become an ideal tool to spread the great natural diversity of El Bahía Confital, where the beach of Las Canteras is integrated, its habitual setting.

The Fotosub Las Palmas de Gran Canaria has been closed with the vocation to continue strengthening the condition of the capital of the island as a destination of quality for diving tourism and the practice of sport at sea.

Sunday's event allowed 150 people to immerse themselves in the waters of Las Canteras in search of the best photographs of their funds. Mere, Carmelites, gourds, bellies, fulas, pejeverdes, hedgehogs, etc. And Las Canteras, especially the seafood area in the charcoal and Los Lisos has become an authentic nursery of marine species, which guarantees the excellent health of this coastal area.