The Municipal Band of Music of Las Palmas of Gran Canaria joins the program of the third Multidisciplinary Festival of the Canary Islands Factory Fest, organized by Fábrica La Isleta, with a concert that, on Saturday, September 23, from 20:30 hours, will lead to the arena of Las Canteras (at the height of Las Puntilla) chords by Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Glen Miller or Louis Prima.

"Picnic Swing", premiered in the past Founding Festivities of the city, will feature guests like Luis Augusto Báez, on piano, and Francisco Perera on bass. He will also return to the tables of this particular stage the voice of the Dutch Errol Woisky, professor of jazz singing for more than twenty years and author of the book Manual for singers, who already won the favor of the public in the premiere of " Picnic Swing ", last June.

The concert of the Symphonic Band is integrated in the program developed by La Isleta Factory, which, for this day, proposes a set of activities that will begin at 17:00 hours.
